By order of the Beard of Registration, JOHN H. SPRINGER, City Clerk.

IMPORTANT STATE ORDER .- The Secretary of War, by order of the President, has issued an order releasing all political prisoners on parole, offering an amnesty for past offences, and directing all future arrests to be made by the military authorities. We copy a portion of the conoluding paragraphs :

Apprehensions of public danger and facilities for treasonable practices have diminished with the passions which prompted the heedless person to adopt the left. The insurrection is believed to have culminated and to be declining.

The President, in view of the fact, and

To all persons who shall keep their parole, the President grants an amnesty for any past offenses of treason or disloyalty which they may have committed. Extraordinary arrests will thereafter be made under the direction of mil itary authorities alone. By order of the President,

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has instructed the Register in this land district that all settlement and oultivation proofs under the Graduation Act must show cultivation of the land, by the purchaser, as well as actual residence upon "Cultivation is construed to mean a clearing and preparation of the ground and the raising or sowing of some crop upon it. A number of papers made out in accordance with the previous practice of the office have been returned by the Commissioner as insufficient, lacking the required proof of cultivation. We are glad to see that Judge Edmunds is determined to put a stop to the fraudulent taking up of government lands by bogue settlers-speculators merely, who never had any design of settling upon them,and to confine the operation of the law to bons fide actual settlers, for whose benofit it was designed. Those who readily have acquired a right to purchase the lands at the graduation prices can easily amend their proofs and make them sufficient.—Enterprise.

It was claimed by defendants in error that the liberty to discontinue under that rule was, if not an absolute right of the party, at least in the uncontrolled discretion of the court, and also, that if controllable, it must be by mandamus, and not by exception. It is true that matters resting entirely in discretion cannot usually be reviewed.

But it would be going to very dangerous lengths to hold that any legal right can ever rest in the discretion of a court, or that under the pretext of discretion there should be immunity for gross frauds and place, we know of no law giving it to abuses. We have already decided in the city, or under which it can be claimed Besshem v. Henick, 9 Mich. The propriety in each cause depends very much upon facts apparent to the court where the cause is pending, and the party seeking such a privilege can generally present his reasons, where they exist, in such a way as to raise no difficulty in the decision.

The present case is so plain that it calls for no such attempt to deduce general rules for legitimate applications

As the discontinuance against Emerson has put him out of the case, and as a discontinuance against one, except when permitted by law, is a total discontinunce, we are compelled to reverse the udgment entirely. There is no basis for a new trial, and therefore we are not called upon to consider the other law points discussed.

School District No. 1 of the Township of Saginaw was organized in 1837. In 1857 the City of Saginaw was incorporated, the city limits being wholly within the school district, and comprising about one-fourth of the district. A mill tax for schools had been levied and collected in the district the preceding year, and paid over to the township treasurer, which poration of the city the officers of the district assumed to act as officers of School District No. 1 of the City of Saginaw for that part of the district com-prised within the city limits, and to change the name of the district from School District No. 1 of the Township of Saginaw to School District No. 1 of the City of Saginaw. The city charter provides for the election of two School Inspectors for the city, and also makes the recorder of the city, and also makes the recorder of the city ar officio school inspector, thereby clearly indicating an intention to sever the City from School District No. 1 of the Township of Saginaw; and such, we think, was its effect. We are also of opinion that while the charter took from the district a part of
